

Miller & Rhoads. Women and Children's Underwear and Hosiery

Subjects that every woman is decidedly interested in just now.

Speaking about Underwear—
Have you ever tried a Union Suit for yourself or the children?

People that wear them say they're the most comfortable winter undergarments one can wear. Heavy jersey-ribbed cotton suits for women, 50c.
Children's union suits of heavy fleece-lined cotton—jersey ribbed—all sizes, 25c.

Heavy fleece-lined vests and pants of fine Egyptian cotton in white and unbleached—jersey ribbed—all sizes—and what's very essential, nicely shaped, 50c.

Part wool pants and vests for women in white and natural gray, 50c.
Vests and pants, for women, of heavy jersey fleece lined cotton—all sizes, 25c. each.
Heavy fleece lined shirts and drawers for boys, 25c.

HOSIERY.
Pure-silk Gauze Black Stocking for $1.00, that we consider the equal of anything we ever sold before at $1.50. Certainly remarkable how the manufacturers can get up such hosiery to sell at this price—but they're doing it, and you can see for yourself just what a value it is.

Another stocking that we've had numerous calls for lately is a black with white soles, for ladies. Extra large size in this hosiery.

It's 25c. a pair of 3 pairs for $1.00. A splendid value at 50c in ladies' hosiery is a plain black in heavy and medium weights.

Children's Black Ribbed Hose, in heavy and medium weights, 25c a pair.

Children's Hose for general knock-about and school wear, 17c a pair, or 3 pairs for 50c. They're extra heavy and reinforced with double knees, heels and toes.

BATH ROBES.

The very thought of them brings comfort this weather; $2.25 to $7.00.

An especially nice one at $4.00, good quality Eiderdown, in white and gray mixtures; box pleated back.

Smoking Jackets $3.50 to $10

The man that doesn't smoke can call it a house coat. It's "comfort for men," by whatever name it is called.

$5.00 purchases a very good one in several colors of flannel, bound in self-colored silk braid; frog fasteners.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Sol. L. Bloomberg have announced the betrothal of their daughter, Edna, to Mr. Alfred B. Lichtenstein, of Toronto, N. C. They will be at home to their friends to-morrow evening from 8 to 11 o'clock.

Mr. James Carrington Foster, of Staunton, Va., has issued invitations for the marriage of his sister, Miss Margaret Johnston Foster, to Mr. Taylor McCoy, of Staunton, the wedding to take place in Trinity Church, Staunton, Va., at 10 A. M. Miss Foster is known as one of the most attractive young girls in Staunton and Mr. McCoy, who is very popular, is the private secretary of Hon. Allen Caperton Braxton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien H. Cooke, of Roanoke, whose marriage was a recent one, are giving a social occurrence in Atlanta, where the dinner guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Glasgow, of Roanoke. Those invited to meet the guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, Judge and Mrs. William Gordon Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Addison.

Mrs. Cooke was, in her girlhood, Miss Sallie Cobb Johnson, of Atlanta, who was a great social favorite and belle in that city. Mr. Cooke is a son of the late Dr. Charles L. Cooke, of Roanoke, and a member of a leading law firm in Roanoke. He met his bride at Hot Springs Va., last summer when the Bar Association convened at the celebrated Virginia Spa.

Mrs. Richard Evelyn Byrd, of Winchester, well known in Richmond, through her frequent visits to friends here, gave a house party this week at her home, which was attended by her brother, Congressman H. D. Flood, of Appomattox; Dr. Carson and Mr. W. E. Carson, of Rivermont; Mr. Gardner Booth, of Alexandria, Va.; and Mr. Joseph B. Button, of the city. All of whom were out-of-town guests at the Russell-Cover wedding last Wednesday evening.

At the wedding of Miss Marie Lumsden to Mr. Clifford Alvin Lyle, which took place December 18th at 829 P. M., in the home of Mrs. J. E. Lumsden, the bride wore Paris muslin, a tulle veil, and carried Bride roses. Miss Ruby Lyle, in white, was maid of honor. Misses Dollie Baker, Elsie Daise, Eva and Wilmer Lumsden, groomed in white wedding gowns, were the bridesmaids. The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. Frank Wayne, and by Messrs. R. F. Reynolds, Thomas Brooks, H. L. Hepler and George Atkins. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Weston Bruner, of Calvary Baptist Church.

Personal Mention.

HOME TESTING
A Sure and Easy Test on Coffee.

To decide an important question of coffee, whether or not it is really the hidden cause of your physical ailments and approaching fixed disease, one should make a test of ten days by leaving off coffee entirely and using well made Postum Coffee.

If relief follows you may know to a certainty that coffee has been your vicious and killing enemy. Of course you can take it back to your heart again if you like to keep sick.

A lady says: "I had suffered with stomach trouble, nervousness and terrible sick headaches for some time. I was a child, for my people were always great coffee drinkers, and let us think on have all we wanted. I got so I could not live without coffee, and I would not acknowledge that it was causing my suffering."

"Then I read many articles about Postum and I decided to give it a fair trial. I had not used it two weeks in place of coffee until I began to feel like a different person. The headaches and nervousness disappeared, and where I used to be sick two or three days out of a week while drinking coffee, I am now well and strong and sturdy seven days a week, thanks to Postum."

"I had been using Postum three months and had never been sick a day when I thought I would experiment and see if it really was that coffee caused the trouble. So I began to drink coffee again, and inside of a week I had an awful sick spell. I was so ill I was soon convinced that coffee was the cause of all my misery and I went back to Postum again in a hurry with the result that I was soon again well and strong, and determined to use Postum the rest of my days and to leave coffee alone in the future." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Look in each package for a copy of the famous Little Book, "The Road to Well-being."

BURGLARY IN FULTON

Thieves Ransacked House in the Broad Daylight.

THE GRAND JURY TO MEET

Great Interest Felt in the Result—Negro Woman Creates Disturbance.

One of the boldest attempts at burglary in broad daylight ever known in Fulton is now being investigated by the officers of Henrico county.

The residence entered was that of Mrs. Essie Tenser, on Lewis Street. Mrs. Tenser is advanced in years, but is employed at a Richmond bag factory. She lives with her grandson, who is also at work during the day. The house is, therefore, unoccupied a considerable portion of the twenty-four hours.

Thursday afternoon between 2 and 6 o'clock the place was thoroughly ransacked, despite the fact that it was broad daylight. In a thickly settled portion of the town, and that just across the street from a county magistrate, a pane in a rear window was smashed, opening the way for the removal of a broomstick that had been fastened down. When Mrs. Tenser returned home, she found the house upset and everything in confusion. Bureaus and closets and everything else at hand had been pried into and clothing was strewn from garret to cellar in the utmost disorder. Strang to say, nothing appears to have been taken. The thieves were either in search of money, of which there was none in the house, or they were scared off betimes.

Great interest is felt in the county in the session of the grand jury Monday, when it is believed the investigation into the alleged election frauds will come to an end. Up to this time it has been impossible to get any idea of the personnel of the new batch of witnesses who will constitute the free material for the jury to work upon. At the instance of Foreman Watts, Judge Wickham has issued instructions that the names be withheld from publication. The sheriff, therefore, declines to give them out.

At the reorganization of the Board of Stewards of Fairmount Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church Tuesday night, the following were elected for the ensuing conference year: Chairman, T. J. Teagle, Assistant, W. T. Hechler, Secretary, F. A. Jones, Treasurer, J. L. Smith, T. J. Teagle, Committee on Worship—W. W. Pendleton, C. W. Pollard, L. C. Smith, T. J. Teagle, Church Comfort—J. H. Pace, W. H. Oxenham, T. H. Morris.

Visiting Committee—G. W. Witham, E. R. Woody, C. W. Pollard, J. H. Pace, W. H. Oxenham, L. C. Smith. Collectors in Church—W. W. Pendleton, J. H. Pace, J. E. Baker, T. J. Teagle. Alternates—E. R. Woody, F. A. Jones, G. W. Witham, L. C. Smith. Ushers—E. R. Woody, and he to select his assistants. Chorister—F. A. Sherman; Assistant, W. H. Oxenham. Organist—Mrs. Mary Sherman; Sexton, N. L. Gentry; reading notes, T. J. Teagle; Music Committee—W. H. Oxenham, J. S. Brauer, B. H. Thompson. The courtesies of the board were tendered to the three retiring members—Messrs. J. S. Brauer, B. H. Thompson and T. Walker Jeter.

No success has as yet attended the very vigorous efforts of the Henrico authorities to trace the negro assassin of Mrs. Parsons of Barton Heights. Several clues are said to be in hand, but as yet they have produced nothing—least of all the negro himself. A couple of officers recently visited a lower end brick-yard and scoured it in the dead of night, but no body was found. The bird had flown again.

A negro woman named Mary Ridley, about a week out of jail visited the courthouse Thursday night under the delusion that she was "going home." When she learned her mistake she kicked up a disturbance of such proportions that she was held for safe keeping. Squire Lewis fined her $5 yesterday and she went to jail again.

PENITENTIARY BOARD TO MEET TUESDAY

The Board of Directors of the State penitentiary will meet in regular session on Tuesday next, and will dispose of much routine business. The question of electing a superintendent for the ensuing term will likely be discussed, but it is hardly probable that any final act will be taken until some time in December. The election is to be held in time for the superintendent to take office on January 1st.

Mass-Meeting of Zionists.
A big mass-meeting will be held under the auspices of the newly organized society, "The Zion-Zion" (The Hope of Zion), on Sunday, the 28th instant, at 2 P. M., at Hallman's Hall, No. 191 East Main Street, corner of Seventh Street.

Addresses will be made by prominent speakers. The public is invited to attend.

Major Saville's Successor.
A successor to Major Charles O. Saville, of the First Battalion, 68th regiment, Virginia militia, will be chosen on next Thursday evening. A meeting of the officers of the First Battalion will be held at 8:30 o'clock that evening for the purpose.

At Beth Ababa.
At Beth Ababa Synagogue this morning Dr. E. N. Calich will discuss the theme, "He hath put down the mighty and exalted the lowly"—the sentiment of the play, "The Prince of Princes." Dr. Calich spoke on "Who is Religious?"

Qualification.
In the Chancery Court yesterday, W. R. Branch qualified as executor of the estate of Mary F. Currants, which is valued at $24,000.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.50 SHOE WORTH $5.00.

AMERICA LEADS THE SHOE FASHIONS OF THE WORLD!

THE STYLES ORIGINATED BY MY EXPERT DESIGNER ARE COPIED EVERYWHERE.

I do not need to talk to the great army of wearers of W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes, they speak for them everywhere. It is you who have never worn them I wish to convince. If you pay $5 to $7 for shoes thinking that a shoe cannot be made with as much style, comfort and service for $3.50, isn't it possible you are mistaken? If you will throw prejudice aside, and give W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes a trial, you will then be convinced that paying high prices for shoes is merely sentiment. It is a positive fact which cannot be justly disputed that W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are worn by more men in all stations of life than any other make. Don't you think this is sufficient proof that W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are the best?

W. L. Douglas makes and sells more men's Goodyear Welt (hand-sewed process) $3.50 shoes than any other manufacturer in the world.

We used to be in the habit of being sung to sleep when we were in arms forty years ago, and it comes natural to us to drop off into oblivion now when there is any noise going on that sounds soft and cooling.

And when we get in a mood to take a siesta, we gently drop into the gallery of the House of Delegates and have a few dreams under the entrancing power of Harry Owens' sweet words, as he reads the bills and calls the rolls.

We don't know how to express our gladness to know that Olla Havian and the Blue bunch will be on deck next week. We want to see Little Chip, and hear Mary Marble's sweet voice, and bask in the broad smile on Johnnie Johnson's cherubic face, and enjoy Professor Nichols' delightful music, and listen to Dan Marble tell a funny story, and hear Dave Andrus sing, and dream over the graceful evolutions of the girls. They are in Norfolk this week—Happy Norfolk!

ANIMAL STORIES FOR OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

The Smoking Fish.

The shad was swimming around at the bottom of the sea when he saw the puffy fish passing along.

"Where are you going?" asked the shad.

"To get my pipe," said the puffy fish.

"What do you propose to do with it?" asked the shad.

"To smoke it, of course," said the puffy fish.

HE PUFFED, AND PUFFED, AND PUFFED.

"Under the water?" asked the shad.

"Certainly," said the puffy fish.

"Ridiculous!" said the shad.

But the puffy fish got his pipe and filled the bowl of it with nice, clean stones and then stuck it in his mouth.

He puffed, and puffed, and puffed, and each time a long string of bubbles danced merrily out of the pipe and ran up to the surface of the water.

And they looked so much like real smoke that Mr. Shad opened his eyes in surprise and exclaimed:

"Will wonders never cease?"

DAILY FASHION HINTS

MISSIE'S CORSET COVER.

A practical little pattern that has been designed especially for misses is shown here. It has plenty of fullness in the front at bust and waist line to give a nice, full figure. There is only the one seam; hence the garment is easily made.

The fullness at the waist in front and back is held in place by an underfacing, and the corset cover comes well down over the hips. The trimming is all a matter of taste, as the neck arm edge may be simply finished by beading or elaborately trimmed with ruffles of lace and insertion. Any material suitable for under muslins may be used for the mode.

No. 4165—Sizes twelve, fourteen and sixteen years.

On receipt of 10 cents this pattern will be sent to any address. All orders must be directed to THE LITTLE FOLKS PATTERN CO., 78 Fifth Avenue, New York. When ordering, please do not fail to mention number.
